

MENINGOCOCCAL C

TAKE ACTION NOW!

A high fever

Vomiting

Drowsiness or confusion

A severe headache

Red or purple bruise-like spots that do not fade under pressure

- Meningococcal C vaccination at school for children in Year 1 to Year 7 in 2004
- Meningococcal C vaccination at your GP or immunisation clinic for children who were:
 - in Year 7 to Year 12 in 2003
 - 15 to 19 years of age in 2003
 - 1 to 5 years of age in 2003

For more information:

Contact your child's primary school, local immunisation clinic or visit the Department of Health website: www.health.wa.gov.au/immunisation